

n = 6 strict numerical tolerance — 15/15 runs stable; conclusions are invariant to the integrator settings

(A) 5 points × 3 levels, 600 h each. The $n=4$ point is a deliberate negative control: tighter integration never rescues it (B) Numerically converged: the largest change in any reported metric is $\sim 10^{-10}$, far below every decision margin

